- ❖ To ensure that maximum desirous households are included in the list of beneficiary, the SLNA created a web portal through which a person can apply online under PMAY-HFA(U).
- ❖ The link: http://www.muda.mn.gov.in/sign_In_HFA.aspx

The screenshot displays the website of the Manipur Urban Development Agency (MUDA). The header features the MUDA logo and name in both English and Manipuri. A navigation menu includes links for Home, National Urban Livelihoods Mission (NULM), Swachh Bharat Mission (Urban), CCBP, Notification, Tender, Gallery, and Login. The main content area is titled "HFA Online Application (User Signin)" and contains a login form with fields for "User ID" and "Password", "Login" and "Reset" buttons, and a "ULB Login" link. A footer note states "Particular module developed by SYNAPX". Below the login form, there is a link to "Sign up for new account" with a "Click here" text. The browser's address bar shows the URL "http://www.muda.mn.gov.in/sign_In_HFA.aspx". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons.

Beneficiary Selection

- ❖ A beneficiary to approach ULBs with documentation regarding availability of land owned by them.
- ❖ The Urban Local Bodies shall validate the information.
- ❖ Validation may be done with Socio Economic Caste Census (SECC) data to ensure beneficiary's eligibility.
- ❖ If the need arise, a Verification Committee may be constituted if mismatch between SECC data and actual position.
- ❖ To disseminate activities of HFA(U), FB page "Housing for All–2022,Urban Manipur" is opened where the progress of the Mission is uploaded.
- ❖ Ward by ward consultative and masons training programmes undertaken by the ULBs.

Demand Survey, Inviting Claims & Objections

- ❖ Widespread publicity for Demand Survey in towns using Public Address System & newspaper advertisement:
- ❖ ULBs issued notifications inviting Claims & Objections to the draft beneficiary list derived after field verification.

LAUNCHING PROGRAMME OF

KHUNGANG CHATSE MISSION

KONUMA, LAPHUPAT TERA KOMLA KHONG GRAM PANCHAYAT
DER MANGAL P. L. ASSAM CONSTITUENCY

Manipur, which means 'Land of Jewels', the gateway to Southeast Asia, is finally striding ahead on the path to "inclusive development". On 1st May, 2018, Chief Minister Nongthombam Biren Singh launched an ambitious outreach programme, "Go to Village" (Khungang Chatse) Mission. The Mission is an important intervention by the Government of Manipur to reach out and deliver Government benefits and welfare schemes to citizens at their doorsteps.

"Go to Village" (GTV) Mission was officially launched simultaneously in 60 selected villages, in all 60 Constituencies, across 16 districts of the State of Manipur. Chief Minister N. Biren Singh inaugurated the main function at Konuma Ground, Laphupat Tera Komlakhong Gram Panchayat, Imphal West, with much fanfare on Labour Day. The State Government is committed to "deliver good governance and bring inclusive development to the State", said the Manipur Chief Minister while launching the Mission.

'Inclusive Development' consists of ensuring that all marginalized and excluded groups are stakeholders in development processes. "Go to Village" Mission, the latest policy intervention undertaking by the Government of Manipur, aims to improve the economic, political and social well-being of the people.

OBJECTIVE OF 'GO TO VILLAGE' MISSION

The objective of the project, according to official website of the Mission, "Go to Village" is to reach out to the citizens at their doorsteps, explain Government programmes and its benefits to the people and ensure timely delivery of services to eligible beneficiaries, redress their problems and queries in a smooth and citizen-friendly manner and provide on the spot solutions, on the same day, without delay wherever possible.

The noble initiative of the State Government, aimed at empowering the weaker sections of society, will pay special focus to
